MARCH 25 - M.H.A. SPRING DANCE

BUCK SAYS . . .

He carries all types of pianos and here is his deal. . . .

- (1) If you ride Western, you get a discount.
- (2) If you ride English, you get a discount.
- (3) One type gets a larger discount, one smaller.
- (4) Now guess who gets the largest. Remember "Buck" rides flat saddle himself. . . . But, you're dead wrong. The Westerner gets most off. Why? Don't be silly. There are more of you. "Buck" is crazy. Says you.

That's the big door prize on Saturday night, March 25—accommodations for three days at the Palm Springs Convention! And that's not all. Bud Vogel and Deane Burton, Activities Chairmen, report their committee buzzing like a beehive—

At press time, Joe Merritt announced these prizes, with more to come:

Silver Belt Buckle — Skyline Saddle Shop
$20 Pair of Spurs — Sun Electric Corp.
Horse-and-Clock — La Fiesta Catering
Set of Fog Lights — Melrose Auto Co.
Horse Portrait, Trophy — Skyline Ranch
$5 Cleaning Order —

Metropolitan Dry Cleaners

Two Steak Dinners — Skyline Kitchen
Automobile Accessory —

Roger Farrar and Woody Cottle

Publicity stunts were cooking, with Mayor Cliff Rishell inviting some horses to City Hall for a High Alfalfa Tea. Dutch Cummings was dealing out tickets in all directions. Mel Coe and Roger Farrar had arranged for a few good diversions between dances.

Deane Burton had Stan Johnson's Band doing deep breathing, so they'll be in fine fettle for the big night.

The Juniors are invited to come in full force. They'll have their own soft drink bar, and plenty of room for fun.

Curry old Dobbin, let the neighbors milk the cows, bring the kids and come galloping! Remember — Cooks' Hall, 1604 Webster St., 8:30 p. m. to 1:00 a. m., March 25.

BRING YOUR OWN GANG!

Many riding groups are coming in a body. Many horsemen are bringing non-member friends. All are welcome, and every prize worth having! Wear horse clothes, street clothes,—whatever you like. Get tickets from the committee, your stable or your club.

A dollar a ticket—what a passport to a memorable Saturday night!

OVERNIGHT RIDE PROPOSED

A four-hour ride over rolling hills, with swimming, softball, horseshoe games, a barbecue dinner and dancing to follow—sound good? Tentative date, Saturday and Sunday, April 29 and 30. Plans include staying overnight, with a big breakfast and games. Call Bud Vogel (GL. 1-2458) or any of the Activities Committee for details and reservations.

No reason why all your spring clothes shouldn't keep that spic-and-span freshness that makes them so attractive and such a delight to wear!

Just have them cleaned the STANTEST way! Our Stantest Dry Cleaning does more than a 100% cleaning job—it helps preserve the natural "newness" of silks, woolens and rayons. Garments retain all their original color, softness and beauty.

Why? Because the pure petroleum cleaning solvent we use has a gentle action—it does not harm fabrics the way synthetic solvents often do. Not only is our solvent scientifically checked for purity; fabrics from our plant are tested regularly to make sure soil removal is complete. This is the "double check" Stantest gives you on dry cleaning quality!

NEW PRINTER FOR BLAZER

Here it is—your second issue of TRAIL BLAZER by its new printer, MHA member Jack Jaques, of West Coast Printing Co. While Jack makes few claims for himself as a horseman, he has a good hand on a Linotype.

We'll sorely miss the guiding hand of CSHA President Fred Anderson, who could probably close his eyes and write the magazine himself, as well as produce it.

For Fred's good judgment on many a problem, TRAIL BLAZER can be grateful. For his untiring interest in horses and horsemanship, all Californians are learning to be grateful, as he makes his presidential way from one regional, state and legislative meeting to another, preparing for this Fall's big Convention at Palm Springs.

CLIFF BARBERA, PHOTOGRAPHER

Clifford A. Barbera has been named Official Photographer for the TRAIL BLAZER. Cliff is a partner and Assistant Manager in Colbourn Studio.

All in the same breath, let us here express TRAIL BLAZER'S thanks to Charles A. Logue of Concord, for his generous help as Official Photographer all through 1948 and 1949.

DIRECTORS' MEETING NOTES

Mrs. Mabel Smith, Treasurer, was introduced to directors and committee members at their meeting on February second. (Mrs. Smith's new ranch home and stable is nearing completion at 5047 Dublin Avenue. She asks that riders come in through the big gate often, to say "hello".)

Mel Coe reported to the Directors that the Footprinters have offered to spend a day working on the trails, a suggestion that was heartily accepted.

Activities Chairman Bud Vogel presented George Walling's idea: an MHA talent show, to be held in the Fall.

Junior Chairman Kay Walling asked the Board's reaction to accepting a sponsor for the Drill Team, particularly to secure transportation to shows and parades. The question was referred to a committee.

Public Relations Chairman Jim Myers was authorized to investigate the problem of where to hold the Horse Show.

APPOINTMENTS

Fred L. Bemis has been named to represent MHA at state and regional meetings.

Clarence A. Simons has been appointed chairman of the Convention Committee.

REPORTERS FULL OF IDEAS

Elsa Himmelman, Vianne Schumacher, Peg Talstrom, Phebe Brown and Janet Phillips were among enthusiastic reporters who met at the home of Mary Gale last month. There were delicious refreshments by Mrs. L. I. Gale. And there were some excellent suggestions for the magazine:

(1) Give more news of people who have their own stables and are not associated with riding groups. (If anyone has such news, please call Bea McKechnie at KEl-log 3-6463.)

(2) Run informative articles on horses, their types, care, equipment, handling, etc. (Janet Phillips has promised one on Trail Courtesy.)

HORSEMEN SCHEDULE DANCES, SHOWS, FUN

Lari-ette Dance, Horse Show

Begorra, it's going to be SOMETHING, the St. Patrick's Dance on Friday night, March 17, at the Big Bear Tavern on Redwood Road. Deane Burton took time off from her activities as MHA Director to get Stan Johnson's Band. Admission $1.00.

(These gals are working hard to raise money to send their group to Palm Springs, and MHA is proud of them. But you needn't go to their dance as a kindly gesture. Go because they're grand people and you'll have a darned good time.)

Easter Sunday brings the Lari-ettes' (Palm-Springs-or-Bust) First Annual Horse Show at Skyline Ranch, Redwood Rd. and Skyline Blvd. Admission is free. Entry blanks list 10 classes, English and western, for juniors and adults, with ribbons and trophies in all classes, and a championship trophy to the horse with highest number of points in the show. Get entry blanks from the committee: Deane Burton, Mgr.; Janet Hansen, Sec.; Elsa Himmelman, Myrtle Cowell, Ruby Welch, Geneva Menicucci or Margaret Rukavina.

Castro Valley Dance, March 11

Door prizes every hour are promised by the Castro Valley Horsemen's Ass'n. for their Fourth Annual Dance, Friday, March 10, at The Round-Up on Redwood Road. Tickets are $1.00, and all horsemen are invited, according to Mrs. Helen Rochi, who heads the entertainment committee. (Adults only.)

Footprinters' Night, March 11

On a Reporter's Blank that said at the top, "Be sure to check on CORRECT SPELLING," this is what appeared:

Come March 11, 1950, the Mounted Unit of the I. F. A. Chapter No. 7 is giving its annual Western Nite—Yippee! Yo' all may be the lucky one to win the $125 Bronze Statue or the 'lectric 'larm clock worth 35 bucks (dollars to you forners.)

Of corse thar'll be hams an' bacon galore. Free chow and free to get yo'self in thar. We'll have many games, entertainment, country store, and some terrific prizes given away absolutely free—an' to top all this hyar off, thar'll be a prize for the best drest Western couple. (Cowboys please leave yore shootin' irons home with the kids.)

OAKLAND AUDITORIUM, 3rd Floor BALLROOM, MARCH 11. Doors open at 6:30. SEE YO' ALL.

STATE MEETING BRINGS CONVENTION NEWS

Some two hundred representatives from almost every part of the state attended the Annual Meeting of the California State Horsemen's Association in San Francisco on February 11. President Heber Brown represented our organization in the absence of Fred Bemis, MHA delegate.

Discussion centered about the convention in Palm Springs next Fall, and brought up several points vital to the MHA. While a detailed report appears in the State magazine, "The Horseman," for March, a summary follows:

CONVENTION CLASSES

Breeding Classes, Quarter Racing: Ray Stone, reporting action from the Executive Committee, proposed that breeding classes and quarter horse racing be eliminated from the 1950 show at Palm Springs, because of lack of stalls to care for breeding horses, and because there is no track. The group present were not willing to accept this recommendation without discussion in their own clubs, and further inquiry into ways to include these two events.

Cutting Horses: To be a Blue Ribbon event—no regional eliminations.

Gaited Horses: These classes to be eliminated. Because other shows offering money prizes are scheduled at about the same time, it has been the experience of the Executive Committee that owners prefer not to exhibit at the Convention.

GYMKHANA EVENTS

Stake Race: A new event—a race around four stakes placed in the position of a square.

Ring Spearing: Same rules as at the 1949 Convention, with one practice run for each participant.

DRILL TEAMS

Slight reapportionment of percentages given for "briskness" and "variety in maneuvers;" 10% now given for "spacing." (Drill teams should write Joe Massone, Region 5 Vice-President, Rte. 1, Box 310, Walnut Creek, for Drill Team judging.)

JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Recognition to be given first, second and third boy and girl, rather than first place only. One non-interested registered observer to sit in on all written tests. Contestants to know something of horseshoeing. No stallions to be used in horsemanship division. (See "The Horseman" for details.)

ACCOMMODATIONS LIMITED

Only about 200 stalls will be available at Palm Springs, but proper arrangements will be made to tie horses outside—the weather being balmy and there being no danger of rain. Dude ranches nearby will be available to groups who arrange to occupy the living quarters and stable their horses in the ranch stalls. Groups desiring these accommodations may write Bill Grant, Box T, Palm Springs.

STATE TRAILS

Other Annual Meeting business included a plea from CSHA's Past President, Ed Zwierlein, for funds so that we may receive some consideration from the state legislators. At the present time, Ed stated, they are very much inclined to deny our request for funds to continue the State Trail.

IT'S A CHALLENGE, MATES!

For years, MHA has been the largest horsemen's organization in the state. Now there's a club in Southern California claiming a larger membership than ours.

Let's look to our laurels! No group had so many entries in the State Horse Show last year. No area has greater scenic beauty or a comparable system of trails for riders.

Let's bring every horse owner, every rider, every man whose business depends upon horses into the MHA. And bring their families, too—there are lots of activities in which everybody participates!

STATE CHAMPS LOOK AHEAD

Floyd L. Jacobs, Captain, and Frank L. Kelly, First Lieutenant, will defend the title of the Aahmes Shrine Mounted Patrol as State Champion Drill Team. The unit was led to this distinction by Fred L. Bemis, whose health forced him to resign after four years as Captain. While he will be greatly missed, the Patrol has already begun drill practice for 1950. Heber James Brown and David Clay Jones have been named Second Lieutenants.

BOOTS & JEANS ELECT

Lefty Bowers was unanimously returned as Captain in the Boots & Jeans election last month. Dutch Cummings was named First Lieutenant; Charlie Barnard, Second Lieutenant; Bobbye Stewart, Custodian; Alma Leonhardt, Secretary-Treasurer. A new square dance and new costumes are planned.

Bud Vogel now owns a beautiful black stock horse, Honest John, who will add square dancing to his repertoire.

NEWS OF THE STABLESPinto Ranch

Pat Wurt and her sorrel horse can be seen enjoying the trails this sunny weather, as well as Charlie Hagaman with his good-looking new bay.

Vern Chappell's nice chestnut is a welcome new boarder.

Pearl Leibl and her famous palomino, Don Keeno, have moved to Sutter Creek.

Wildwood

The sunshine has brought the MHA Juniors into the ring for drill practice, and the boarders turn out 100%, these fine weekends.

Johnnie's three quarterhorse stallions are getting their workouts before the Spring racing season. He says the weather has already got Goldbrick looking for race tracks. That's the quarterhorse Johnnie ran successfully on the tracks last Summer.

Arlington Hills

The Arlington Vaqueros officers are: Dave Ellsworth, President; Doreen Thurlin, Vice-President; and Christy Russell, Secretary. Christy has a new chestnut jumping horse, and Betsy Holt a lovely half-Arab.

Leo Armstrong was recently installed as President of San Pablo Horsemen's Ass'n. Vice-President, Louis Peterson; Directors: John Emrich, Carrol Gossett, and Dr. Wm. Warthon. The Junior group is expanding, with eight members now.

JUNIOR MEMBERSHIP CONTEST

Earl Nanninga's Saddle Shop will present a $7.50 merchandise order to the Junior who brought in the greatest number of memberships during February. The lucky winner has not yet been announced.

Monthly contests continue through June, according to Charlie Gray, and here are the rules:

Each membership counts one point. To qualify for a prize during any month, the junior must have at least three points.

Each month there is a brand new contest, with an excellent prize.

At the end of June, the Junior having the greatest total number of memberships will receive the grand prize—a radio. Second and third prizes will also be awarded.

Scores from the first contest, which closed January 31, do not count.

All Juniors are on their own. Memberships received directly by the Treasurer, Secretary, or any other officer, director or member of MHA will not be credited to the score of any junior, unless the membership application is accompanied by a written request from the person making the application.

TRAILS DONATION CONTEST

In the excitement of the Junior contest this year, many people forgot to donate for trails when they paid their dues. So—the Juniors can win still more prizes in the new Trails Donation Contest.

Each dollar collected for trails will count one point. (For instance, a $25 donation counts 25 points.) Three points during any month will qualify a Junior for that month. Each month the qualifying Junior who turns in the greatest amount for the Trails Fund gets a prize, and at the end of June there will be three grand prizes for the Juniors who place first, second and third.

Rules are the same as for the Membership Contest. Get going, Juniors! Get out your checkbooks, members!

"COUNTY FAIR STOMP" NEXT BIG EVENT FOR JUNIORS, SENIORS

Living up to their reputation as one of the most active groups in the MHA, the Juniors will stage a big dance on Saturday night, April 8. Proceeds will help pay drill team expenses, so the Juniors are working like beavers to get out a record crowd. The place: Norway Hall, 3829 Piedmont Avenue. The price, $1.00 a ticket. Let's shuffle along to the County Fair Stomp, and try for one of those door prizes! Grown-ups invited.

DRILL TEAM NEWS

New blue-and-white uniforms are going to dazzle the spectators this year, as the snappy drill team moves into action. Drills are held on Saturday mornings, in the new ring at Johnnie Curry's Wildwood Stables.

Congratulations to Annette Wright on her new light chestnut mare, Princess.

Snow Trip: 39 Juniors and 9 grown-ups made the trip to Strawberry Lake on February 12. So many signed up that it was impossible to provide overnight accommodations, but the Juniors packed a whole week-end into that one day in the snow, returning home exhausted but intact.

Tip Jar: On the last day of January the Juniors opened the Tip Jar and found $32. This makes a total of $57 in tips donated by the Stephanis and the Skyline Kitchen. The Juniors thank them sincerely, and thank the MHA members who perhaps tipped more generously because they knew where the money was going. It was a splendid gesture that the Juniors will long remember.

SHONGEHON-SUBALTERN GYMKHANA

Basketball was the feature of the afternoon at Cressmount's first gymkhana of the year, held on February 5. Four mounted riders played on each side. Players were Vandra Rosendahl, Karen Anderson, Peggy Day and Jeffrey Hardin, against Wilda Rosendahl, Ann Burnham, Janet Scott and Bonnie Bothwell. Each team made three baskets.

Gymkhana champion was Nina Curley. Tied for reserve champion were Jeffrey Hardin, Pat Brandes and Janet Scott, with Jeffrey winner of the run-off.

Officials were: Judge, Mrs. J. A. Holbrook; announcer, Mrs. M. S. Bothwell; ribbon clerk, Susan Curley. Ribbons were made by Peggy Day, and members of both groups were responsible for the various events.
